

SOUTH OAKS SENIOR HOUSING COMMUNITY

PROGRAM OVERVIEW Volunteers of America's South Oaks Senior Housing Community provides 47 quality, affordable housing units to low-income individuals who are 62 years of age or older. The South Oaks Service Coordination Program helps residents maintain their independence by networking residents with community resources such as transportation, housekeeping assistance, meal delivery and legal advocacy. Additional services include helping residents access benefits, providing wellness and preventative health care opportunities, monitoring services and promoting continued self-sufficiency. All services are free and confidential. The program is funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
