

RE: ESSENTIAL RESIDENTIAL HEALTHCARE SERVICES DESIGNATION

Date: April 23, 2020

To: Law Enforcement, Emergency Services Personnel & Medical Providers:

Volunteers of America Mid-States is a multi-state provider of residential services for individuals in addiction recovery services and residential and in-home care of developmental disabilities individuals and employs the bearer of this letter. The bearer of this letter is a critical part of our infrastructure and individuals he/she serve rely completely on him/her for support of their needs and care.

These individuals are receiving care through our in house residential treatment services. Both President Trump's Emergency Order as well as, State and Local organization orders exempt essential services, including healthcare providers.

This letter verifies the bearer's duties as healthcare worker and is not intended to encroach upon the authority and laws of state and local governmental authorities in any way. This designation as a healthcare worker entails the bearer to receive COVID-19 testing per local, state and federal orders.

If you need to verify the bearer's employment and that, he/she is currently on assignment with Volunteers of America Mid-States, please contact Human Resources at (502)636-0771 or Debbie Gray, Director of Employee Relations at (502)435-2257.

Sincerely,

Human Resources

Volunteers of America Mid-States

(Expires according to state or federal order)
